A few select members of the BNP are on the recruit. Unfortunately, the line this particular individual is taking, is without a doubt racism of the ultimate kind and potentially worst kind.

They've contacted us once before, we said we were not interested, its quite worrying how the tone of their message has become stronger in quite a short time and the individual making the calls sounds like they have been brain washed.

They don't seem to like anyone, it was not pleasant.

They are saying they want to get groups involved with them to strengthen their cause.

It won't work here, thats a dead cert.
